BIOGRAPHY

In June 2024, I will finish my Ph.D. in four years at Shanghai University of Finance and Economics (SUFE). My research interests and job orientations mainly focus on: i) Reducing Risks, involving anomaly (e.g., abnormal credit card/stock transactions) detection for tabular or time-series data modality in financial scenarios. ii) Improving Returns, involving imbalanced learning and automated machine learning techniques to capture abnormal returns, or leveraging NLP techniques to enrich (unstructured) data sources.

OPEN-SOURCE HIGHLIGHTS
 Minqi824

I am a major contributor to several open-source projects, including ADBench (Anomaly Detection Benchmark, ⭐517 Stars), HC3 (Human ChatGPT Comparison Corpus, ⭐545 Stars), and WSAD (A Collection of Resources for Weakly-supervised Anomaly Detection, ⭐56 Stars).
